Activity One: Obstacle Course!

If you have space in your back yard, set up a course using things from around the house: boxes to go around, ropes to go under, etc. Make sure you have permission to use the items! If you need to do this away from home, take some smaller items to mark out your course.

Activity Two: Time Trials!

Set up a set course between two points or around a certain area.

Have a few practices runs, then:

Time your self completing the course 3 separate times, and enter your best time in the box provided.

Activity Three: Race Me!

Using the course you have set out, challenge your friends to a race using as many forms of wheels as you have available, bicycles, scooters, etc.

Race each type of wheels separately, and make notes of which of you won on each type on the grid below.
